Dear Lamar:

Thanks very much for your letter of January 6. Enclosed are the signed bank signature cards and letter of authority. I do not believe that we need to send these to Caroline for her signature. We could do this, but it has never been done in the past in our Chapter.

The mailing list which you sent me is a little difficult to interpret. Does this list include both paid and non-paid members and what about the ones marked with the black background? I believe that we have made mailings to both paid and non-paid members in the past, but we need to know the paid membership for Chapter activities and appointments. You indicated that you needed to retype the membership list soon. I believe that I will wait for the new list to make the mailing. Please send me a copy as soon as it is available. If you put it in a form that you can run mailing labels, please send me a set of the addressed labels.

I filled in the check for the amount of $26 to cover 200 stamps. That should cover the mailing and the check should clear and come back to you in this month's statement.

It is good to have you as secretary-treasurer. The work is hard and time consuming, but it is rewarding. Your help and cooperation is appreciated very much. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Bill
